ORANGES

Two kiwis: one whole with its brown, fuzzy skin and one sliced in half to show the bright green flesh and black seeds.

KIWI

A pomelo, a large citrus fruit with a thick green rind. One is whole, one is cut in half to show the pale pinkish-red segments, and a single wedge is shown in the foreground.

POMELO

A pomegranate, one whole and one cut open to reveal the numerous bright red, jewel-like seeds (arils) inside. A few seeds are scattered on the surface in front of it.
